

Help with health costs - low income scheme

Entitlement to help with health costs (HC3 certificate)

What you're entitled to

Prescriptions

This certificate does not entitle you to free prescriptions.

Sight tests

Towards a private sight test, you pay a maximum of: £5.10

To claim, show this to the staff in the opticians.

Glasses or contact lenses

Towards an optical voucher, you pay: £10.20

See part B overleaf for help on how to claim help with glasses or contact lenses.

NHS dental treatment

Per course of treatment, you pay a maximum of: £15.30

See part C overleaf for help on how to claim help with NHS dental treatment.

Travel to receive NHS treatment

Towards travel, in a week you pay: £5.10

See part E overleaf for information on how to claim help with travel.

NHS Wigs, or NHS fabric supports

Per prescribed item you pay a maximum of: £15.30

See part F overleaf for information on how to claim help with

NHS Wigs, or NHS fabric supports

Entitlement for

Priya Mattu
Vinay Mattu

Certificate number

3-W1K7G8C4

Valid dates

from: 14 July 2014

to: 14 August 2015

This certificate does not affect any entitlement to help you already have,
for example if you already get help because of your age or a medical condition.

You can view a breakdown of how your entitlement was worked out at:

www.nhs.uk/lowincome

To change your details or tell us your circumstances have changed go to:

www.nhs.uk/lowincome/3-W1K7G8C4

Improper use of this certificate may lead to prosecution.